

AMC Anglais - Be well-informed!

→ Best websites to catch the news and give you different perspectives on key current events. They have a few key things in common: They're unbiased and well-researched, and they dig into a host of topics.

1) CNN 10 : <https://edition.cnn.com/cnn10>

Every day, a ten-minute video to focus on the main world news.

2) Google News :

Breaking stories, customizable home page take you inside the news.

If from a French Google account, simply select "langue et zone géographique", pick "English" and a country to get the news in English from the country you have selected.

3) THE LEARNING NETWORK (from the New York Times) :

<https://www.nytimes.com/section/learning>

From a trusted news organization with its finger on the pulse of the world, this free resource can be a reliable source of activities and ideas for current event discussions.

4) The BBC One-Minute World News :

<https://www.bbc.com/news/av/10462520>

From the best-known British media company, the main headlines summed up in one minute. If you are in a hurry, that is the best way to be informed.

5) PBS NewsHour Extra : <https://www.pbs.org/newshour/extra/articles/>

The high-quality content is credible and it should support interesting discussions.

6) Your Commonwealth : <http://www.yourcommonwealth.org/>

Engage with passionate international perspectives from youth. It offers a rich variety of news and opinion stories on global issues.

7) A link to find the British Press: <http://www.wrx.zen.co.uk/britnews.htm>

